

Happy New Year from the HOPE Foundation

The HOPE Foundation promotes learning community concepts and practices through our various resources, including: Courageous Leadership for School Success Summits and Institutes, the award-winning book, Failure Is Not an Option®, The Soul of Educational Leadership series of books, the Failure Is Not an Option® DVD Collection and more.

Visit www.hopefoundation.org for news, latest research and free strategies including:

- Leading on a Teeter-Totter: Balancing Rationality and Spirituality by Terrence Deal
- Ways School Systems Can Cultivate Out-of-the-Box Leadership by Dennis Sparks
- All Our Children Learning: Benjamin Bloom's Mastery Learning by Thomas Guskey
- A Principal's View on School Communication by Scott Taylor
- Simple Strategies for Collaboration by Deborah Wortham
- Capture, Inspire, Teach! A Conscious, Reflective Strategy by Stephen Peters

This card displays images of the HOPE Quilt - a work of art containing 600 pieces of fabric with illustrations from 15 middle-school-aged children from Georgetown, South Carolina. For more pictures and the artist's statement visit www.hopefoundation.org.

HOPE The Next Step in Engaging your Entire Learning Community

Since 1989, the HOPE (Harnessing Optimism and Potential through Education) Foundation – a non-profit 501c3, whose Honorary Chair is Archbishop Desmond Tutu – has led the way in tapping into the passion, collective wisdom and leadership within learning communities to create schools where failure is not an option for any student.

Visit www.hopefoundation.org for more information, news, the latest research, and free strategies!

1252 North Loesch Road • PO Box 906
Bloomington, Indiana 47402-0906
www.hopefoundation.org

NON-PROFIT ORG.
US POSTAGE
PAID
Bloomington, IN
Permit # 267